

The ACT branch of ALHR held a wonderful fund-raising screening of the film "Lucky Miles" on Monday, 19 June 2007 at the Dendy Civic.

Over 100 people attended from law firms, ACT and Commonwealth government departments, the UN and Parliament to mingle and enjoy pre-film speakers Pene Mathew from the ACT Human Rights Commission, Richard Towle from UNHCR and the film's Director of Photography Geoff Burton.

We celebrated World Refugee Day, raised $1320 for human rights training and had a good time on a wintry Canberran Monday night!

Many thanks to Vijay Murik for generously donating the refreshments, the firm Minter Ellison for their kind support, and Rebecca Minty and Amy Kilpatrick for help with coordination.

We hope to run another evening with Dendy soon, watch this space. Any suggestions for good upcoming films very welcome.
